Clause 44 Strikes, acts of terrorists etc.

Without any further alteration of the General Conditions for Insurance of Goods the insurance is extended, subject to the exclusion below, also to cover damage to or loss of the goods directly caused by persons taking part in

- strikes, lockouts or other labour market disturbances,
- riots, civil commotions or similar disturbances,
- acts of terrorism or similar actions dictated by religious or political motives.

The Insurance does not cover damage, loss or expenses caused by lack of labour due to strikes, lockouts or other labour market disturbances, riots, civil commotions or similar disturbances.

(Used as endorsement for Basic, Extended Basic or Normal Insurance)
