

All life companies	2006
kEuro
Shareholder's capital	469 044
Surplus funds	55 010 065
Free assets	12 874 226
Total own funds:	68 353 335
in % of total own funds	100
No. Of companies	41

Stock companies	2006
kEuro
Shareholder's capital	362 935
Surplus funds	131 847
Free assets	2 804 179
Total own funds:	3 298 961
in % of all companies total own funds	4,9
No. Of companies	26

These companies are either UL companies (from 1991) or companies owned by banks or other strong owners paying dividends (from 1995)

Mutuals &amp; hybrids	2006
kEuro
Shareholder's capital	106 108
Surplus funds	54 878 218
Free assets	10 070 047
Total own funds:	65 054 374
in % of all companies total own funds	95,1
of which unrealized:	20 360 860
in % of surplus funds	37,1
No. Of companies	15

Hybrids: Stock companies that are prohibited to pay out dividends. There was a threat of "nationalising" during the 1970's. The stock companies decided not to pay dividends. This was codified in 1982. The oldest stock life insurance company, Skandia Life from 1856, is one of these.